Madrid, Jan. 31.

THE 19th Inſtant the private Council, compoſed of the Cardinal of Toledo, the Conde d'Oropeſa, the Conſtable and Admiral of Caſtile, the Duke of Alva, and the Conde de Humanes, met again in the King's preſence, to finiſh the Project they had before them, for the putting his Majeſties Revenues on another foot than they are at preſent. The Pope's Nuncio continues his offices for the compoſing the difference about the Money taken out of the French Ship at the Groyne, with great hopes of ſucceſs. But as for the Inſtances he has made in the name of his Holineſs, that the Gallies of this Kingdom, or at leaſt part of them may join the next Summer with thoſe of Venice againſt the Turks, he has, it's ſaid, been anſwered, that the King's Affairs will not permit him to ſend his Gallies this year to the Levant. The Count de Melgar has accepted of the Embaſſy to Rome; And the Conde de Fuenſalida will part from hence the next Month for Milan, to take poſſeſſion of that Government. We have freſh Advices from the Weſt-Indies, which ſay, we may expect the Galeons in ſome of the Ports of this Kingdom in May or June next at fartheſt, and that their Lading will be about 26 Millions in Silver, and ſix Millions in Merchandizes.

Leghorne, Febr. 2. The Maſter of a French Ship arrived in this Port in 21 days from Alexandria, reports, that before his departure, three Turkiſh Men of War, and three Merchant Ships laden with Proviſions, ſailed from thence for Conſtantinople, and that about the ſame time four other Turkiſh Ships arrived there to lade Corn for the Morea.

Venice, Febr. 9. Prince Maximilian of Bruſwicke, General of the Forces of the Republick, arrived here this week with Signior Aleſſandro Beregani, Governor Extraordinary of the Galeaſſes, and ſeveral other Noble Venetians from the Levant, whither they intend to return after the Carnaval. We have an account that the Troops of the Milaneze have, in purſuance of the Treaty the Count de Melgar has made with this State, begun their march, conſiſting in 3000 Foot, and 500 Dragoons. In the mean time Veſſels are preparing here to tranſport theſe and the other Auxiliary Troops, that are daily expected at the Lido, to the Fleet. By a Veſſel arrived from the Morea, we are informed that a very conſiderable number of Greeks and Mainotes have of late put themſelves into the Service of the Republick, and that the Governor of Coron was forming them into Regiments, according to the Orders he had received from the Captain General. We have advice from the Levant, that 8000 Arabs were in Arms about Aleppo and Damaſcus, the Baſſa's of thoſe places not being ſtrong enough to ſuppreſs them, or to hinder the Ravages they commit within their Governments. The Letters from Rome of the 2d Inſtant tell us, that the Pope was perfectly recovered of his late Indiſpoſition, but had not however yet given any Publick Audiences.

Warſaw, Jan. 29. We have Advice from the Frontiers, that the Sieur Mobila, General of the Coſſacks in the ſervice of this Crown, being informed that 3000 Tartars were drawn together near Caminiec, with a deſign to make an Incurſion into the Poliſh Territories, he marched with his Coſſacks, and a Detachement of Poles, which the Crown General had ſent to his aſſiſtance, and falling upon the Tartars, entirely routed them, the greateſt part of them being ſlain upon the place. Several Officers are come hither to raiſe their Recruits, which they are to have complete by the 12th of May, the King intending to be in the Field before the end of that month. The Pope's Nuncio has employed the 500000 Florins that were lately remitted to him from Rome, towards the carrying on the Preparations for the Campagne, and has aſſured his Majeſty that the Pope will farther aſſiſt him with conſiderable Supplies. The Palatinates of this Kingdom which have been freed from Winter-quarters, have, in lieu thereof, been obliged to give a Sum of Money which has been diſtributed among the Troops. The laſt Letters from Zolkiew ſaid there was a report of a private Treaty between the Tartars and the Moſcovites.

Vienna, Febr. 10. The differences are adjuſted with the Deputies of Tranſilvania concerning the Winter-quarters which the Imperial Troops have taken in that Countrey; but as to the Alliance which has been propoſed to them againſt the Turks, it's ſaid they alledge, that it is not yet time for Prince Abafti openly to declare againſt the Ottoman Port, ſeeing the Turks are poſſeſſed of all the Frontier places of that Countrey, which they can therefore when they pleaſe plunder and burn; however it's believed that the news of Teckeley's Liberty, and his being declared Prince of Tranſilvania, will make Prince Abafti take other Reſolutions. The Elector of Saxony will not, we are aſſured, command in Perſon the Forces which he is to ſend to the Emperor's aſſiſtance; They
